ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 24, 1896.

PRICE 2 CTS.

MEDICINAL.
A nervous woman sits up all the night and tries to read herself sleepy. Nine times she gets more and more nervous. The slightest sound strikes terror to her heart. The dark corners of the room haunt her. She doesn't sleep. She doesn't eat. She is a nervous woman. If a woman is nervous and sleepless and afraid of the dark, there is something wrong with her. The most delicate nerves in her body are set on edge by nervousness or disease. Nine-tenths of the nervousness of the world is due to the nervousness of the delicate and sensitive organs that make a woman. If she is nervous, or overworked, the effect will show itself there first. There is no cure for nervousness and sleeplessness. It will leave a woman in a worse condition than it was before. The way to a cure is to cure the cause. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do it. It has cured tens of thousands of cases of female weakness and nervousness. It is a most wonderful invigorating and nerve food. It brings sound healthy sleep and restores the glow and bloom of health. It is the only medicine known before the public for woman's peculiar ailments. It is a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist—in these maladies. It cannot do harm in any condition of the system. Its sales exceed the combined sales of all other medicines for women.

The story of its discovery and its wonderful success is told in one part of Dr. Pierce's great thousand page book, "The Medical Adviser," which will be sent free on receipt of 21 cent stamps to pay for mailing only. World's Dispensary, Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

WONDERFUL TRICKS.

In no country has the art of the con-juror advanced to such a stage of perfection as in India and China. The marvels performed by the Chinese are similar to those practiced in mediaeval Europe and India; such as making water flow backward, reviving the dead and flying through the air. Real Hindoo and Chinese conjurers look upon such tricks as swallowing knives and swords as commonplace.

When the Chinese Viceroy of Khansa gave an entertainment he always had on hand a number of magicians who astonished the spectators with their exploits. It is related that one of the Kansa's slaves would make his appearance carrying a small wooden ball with several holes in it. Through these holes were passed a number of thongs.
The magician hurled the ball into the air. It went up so high that it was lost to the sight of the spectators. There remained in the conjuror's hand but a small end of one of the thongs. He requested a small boy to mount the thong.
No sooner had the boy begun to ascend than he rapidly disappeared from sight.
The conjuror called him three times, but receiving no answer he snatched up a knife, as if in a rage and began to mount the thong. He, too, disappeared as rapidly as had the ball and the boy.

In a short space of time he startled the spectators by throwing down one of the boy's hands, the trunk, limbs and last of all the head. Finally the magician himself came whirling down through the air, all puffing and panting, with blood-beamed clothes. After he had kissed the ground in front of the Viceroy, he took the dismembered parts of the body, laid them in their places, gave them a kick, and, lo and behold! the boy stood once more erect, and was as sound in mind and body as he had ever been. This trick was done in the open court yard of the palace. The performer had hardly any clothes on his person, nor any confederates to aid him in any manner. This is now a common trick with them. Europeans who have seen it are forced to admit that such an occurrence takes place, but they are not certain that they have seen rightly. The Kazi Afkharuddin, in expressing his opinion of the performance, said: "Wallah! 'Tis my belief that there has been neither a going up nor coming down, neither maiming nor mending; 'tis all hocus pocus."

It is the Hindoo that has brought the magic art to such a state of perfection as has never been known before. Kellar, the well-known American magician, made a tour of East India. After his return home he said that in no other place had he seen such marvelous exhibitions of conjuring.

The mango tree trick is well known.
The Hindoo will take a small seed, bury it in a little mud, and cover it over with either a jar or a little gauze basket. In a few minutes the seed has sprouted, and then before your very eyes a mango tree grows.

One of the great Hindoo tricks is performed with a chain 75 feet in length. One end of this chain is thrown up in the air, where it remains as if caught on something up above. A dog is brought forward, and, being placed at the lower end of the chain, runs up to the other end and disappears. The dog is followed in turn by a boy, a panther, a lion, a tiger and a cat. All of these disappear and the chain is taken down without any of the spectators discovering how the different animals and boy had vanished into space.
It is a remarkable fact that a genuine Hindoo magician has never visited this or any other foreign country.

Cure for Headache.
As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the rectum tone to the bowels, and few cases long receded to use this medicine. Try it once.
Fifty cents and $1 at Ernest L. Allen's Drug Store.

Affidavits as to personal character may be necessary to ally suspicion or to attract the simple-minded; but what has the manufacturer's private character to do with the efficacy of his so-called "cure?" Ely's Cream Balm depends solely upon its reputation of years as a successful cure for catarrh in all its stages. It is absolutely free from mercury or any other drug injurious to the system. Being applied directly to the diseased membrane it affords instantaneous relief and will effect a perfect cure of catarrh.

"Half a span of angry steel" will produce no more fatal results than a neglected cold or cough. For all throat and lung diseases, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best remedy.
It is invaluable in cases of croup, whooping cough, bronchitis, and la grippe.

For Over Fifty Years
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs Winnlow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the inflamed parts, and relieves the child, and cures the mother. It is a certain remedy for Diarrhea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winnlow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

his caste, which is valued higher than his life itself.

NEW ORLEANS IS SINKING.—Major Quinn, United States engineer in charge of the lighthouses in Gulf of Mexico, has just returned from Port Eads and the jetties. He insists, after a most careful examination, that the lower delta and the sea marshes along the Gulf of Mexico are slowly sinking. For more than a year experiments with tide gauges have been in progress at the mouth of the Mississippi river, and, as a result, Major Quinn has reached the conclusion that the level of the gulf has been raised one foot since 1877. This the major attributed to a gradual though irregular subsidence of the land along the coast and, he believes, throughout the Mississippi delta and New Orleans and the southern portion of Louisiana.—

Shirt Waists,

In Great Variety.

It is a waste of time to talk about these Waists, and we wouldn't have a word to say if you would know of their presence here without.
We can't tell half the story.
The Waists are better than words and more convincing.
You will agree with us when you see them.

If you want the sweetest Waists in town see these. A distinction and a difference.
Our Shirt Waists are distinctly different from Shirt Waists as you commonly meet them; a trifle finer, a little neater, a slight difference in the form, sleeves hang a little better, collar fits a little better. All of these differences are in our favor. Each a trifle in itself, makes a big difference in the waists, however.

You will admit it when you purchase one of ours at 49c, 74c, 89c or 98c. We have also a nice line of all kinds of Silk in waist patterns from 35c per yard upwards.

Don't forget about the Gloves we advertised last week at $1.

Ladies' Brilliantine Skirts, ready made, at $2.39.
